Chapter 1 by JARED PLASBERG

There was a dead man in a chair by a fire. All of a sudden, the wind started to blow colder, the fire started to rage like never before. Another man walked in to warm by the fire. The second man had the same beard as the dead man. The second man huddled close to the fire, then jumped in. A hiker saw the fire and wandered in for shelter on this cold and windy night. The hiker noticed the dead man and didn't mind him. The hiker knew he had to find a roof, so he decided to stay for the night, a corpse caught the hiker's eye on the fire. He got a closer look, and then he was suddenly pushed in.

Chapter 2 by Benji Lewis

Or was he pulled in? Was the fire alive? There would seem to be nobody there, and a young boy was watching the cottage for quite awhile, sensing something evil and disturbing going on. He was tempted to go into the house, but something held him back. That something felt supernatural to him, and he dared not disobey it.
